

Day 5

Dating as Initiation

Love in a Woman's Life

Dr. Klara Adalena

Love is the ultimate teacher in a woman's life. Love asks you to do the impossible: to let go of what you want so badly to receive something you want even more. Love teaches that success alone doesn't bring happiness and lets us mature. But nobody is born ready for these mysteries.

Dr. Klara Adafena

Profiles, swiping and chatting are only the outer part of dating. What it really is about is the inner journey. Love entices you to learn lessons you have avoided your whole life.

And once you are in a relationship, it continues. To keep the love alive you need to be ready to risk letting it die.

Dr. Klara Adafena

That is why Dating is an Initiation. It opens worlds and powers you always intuited existed.

Love humbles your ego and let's you feel deeper, receive more, shine brighter, manifest bigger.

Part 1 of the practice today: come to the Masterclass. There it all comes together.

Dr. Klara Adafena

Practice part 2:

Feel your desire for this deep, awakening Love.
Whether you're single or in a relationship.
Even though there's no guarantees you will get it.

Love is the secret to your true potential, feel your desire to live all of who you are, the Priestess, Creatrix, Lover and Beloved.

We will continue with it in the Masterclass!
